

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you're applying for a passenger endorsement for the first time.

You'll need a passenger endorsement to drive:

small passenger service vehicles (eg taxis or app-based services) for hire or reward large passenger service vehicles (eg bus).

For more information, read P endorsements for carrying passengers (Factsheet 42).

Apply as early as possible, as your application will take time to process. If you give us your email address, we'll send you updates on your application status. We'll also email you a link so you can track your application's progress online.

What to bring

- Your completed application form.
- Evidence of identity (must be original - no photocopies).
You must provide either:
 - your New Zealand photo driver licence (which can be current or expired up to two years), or
 - your current New Zealand passport, or
 - a combination of acceptable evidence of identity documents* detailed on Identification for driver licensing (Factsheet 20) or at www.nzta.govt.nz/identification

*If neither document has a photo, you'll also need to provide a verified image (see Factsheet 20 for more information).
- Medical certificate completed by a registered health practitioner (if applicable, see the Medical certificate section on page 5).
- Foreign documentation if you've lived in another country for more than 12 months at a time.
- Proof of immigration status, if you weren't born in New Zealand. See the Immigration status section on page 4.
- Your glasses or contact lenses if you wear them for driving.
- EFTPOS, credit card, or cash for paying the fee.
To check the amount you'll pay go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence-fees or call us on 0800 822 422.
- Evidence of name change (must be original - no photocopies).
If you want to change the name on your driver licence, or if the name on your identity documents isn't the same as the name on your licence, you'll need to provide acceptable evidence of name change. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/identification for more information.

Where to apply

Take your completed form and all original documents to any driver licensing agent. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/agent to find an agent in your area.

A customer services representative will process your application, check your identification, take your photograph and a sample signature for your licence, and check your eyesight.

You must pay the fee when you make your application.

Hold full licence for two years

To apply for a passenger endorsement, you must have held your full New Zealand car (class 1) driver licence for at least two years.

If you haven't held your New Zealand licence for that long, but you've been driving overseas for more than two years, you may be eligible for an exemption to recognise your overseas driving experience.

You must apply for the exemption before you can make your passenger endorsement application. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/driver-licence-exemption for more information.

Fit and proper person check

To make sure the public are safe while using passenger services in New Zealand, Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency will check your background. This background check includes:

- transport-related offences, especially relating to safety
- history of behavioural problems
- past complaints about a transport service you may have operated
- history of persistent failures to pay fines for transport-related offences
- criminal convictions (in New Zealand or overseas) including charges and convictions relating to violence or sexual offences, drugs or firearms offences, or offences involving organised criminal activities.

We must be satisfied that you're a fit and proper person. We'll consider any information, from any source, that may be relevant to your application, including (but not limited to) the above list.

After you make your application at a driver licensing agent, we'll check your background with the New Zealand Police. If you're applying for a passenger endorsement and you've lived outside New Zealand since your last application, you may need to provide extra documentation from overseas (see below).

Have you lived overseas?

You'll need to provide documents from each country you've lived in for more than 12 continuous months since the age of 14.

You'll need to provide:

- police records of any criminal history or complaints, and
- traffic records of any infringements or fines

OR

- confirmation that you have no police or traffic records.

The documents must include your most recent travel and must be authorised by the relevant authority (embassy, consulate, or other approved government agency). If needed, they must be translated into English by an authorised translator.

Getting these documents is your responsibility, and at your cost. Waka Kotahi has no influence over these factors. We require these documents before we can complete your application.

You can email the documents in PDF format to PVIO@nzta.govt.nz, mail them to Safer Commercial Endorsements, Waka Kotahi, Private Bag 11777, Palmerston North 4442, or provide certified copies with this form when you make your application to the agent.

If you've already provided documents to Immigration New Zealand, you may be able to supply them again to us. If you don't have copies of the documents, contact Immigration New Zealand.

For more information, read P endorsement for carrying passengers (Factsheet 42). Call us on 0800 822 422 if you have questions about having lived overseas and how it impacts your application.

Eyesight

You must prove that your eyesight is up to standard. You can:

- pass an eyesight screening check at a driver licensing agent, or
- present a satisfactory eyesight certificate or medical certificate (no more than 60 days old).

The certificate must be issued by a New Zealand registered optometrist or health practitioner (see page 5). If you don't pass the eyesight check at an agent, you'll need to provide a certificate instead.

If you have sight in only one eye, or have only one eye (monocular vision) you'll need to present an eyesight certificate.

Email address

Giving us your email address is optional. We'll email you information and reminders about your application and driver licensing, and other Waka Kotahi services, including asking for feedback on our services and the transport system. We recommend using an email address that's unique to you, so only you can see information we send you.

Warning

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to court action. The consequences can include losing your licence and/or paying a fine.

If you don't supply all relevant information, your application may be delayed or declined.

More information

For more information go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence, or you can call us on 0800 822 422.

Our forms and factsheets provide useful, common-sense advice and information in a concise format. They can't cover all aspects of a topic and shouldn't be used instead of authoritative legal advice or legal documents.

Your photo may therefore be disclosed to one of these agencies for one of these purposes.

Waka Kotahi (and its agents) will hold, store, use, and disclose any personal information collected on this form in accordance with the Land Transport Act 1998 and the Privacy Act 2020 (part 7, in particular, which authorises the disclosure of this information in certain circumstances). ID card

If you're going to drive small P passenger service vehicles, complete this section.

If you drive a small passenger service vehicle you'll need a driver identification (ID) card.

Your ID card must be displayed at all times, either facing the passenger in the front of the car or around your neck (for dial-a-driver services).

Your ID card must have a unique identifier (name) on it. You can choose a unique identifier with up to eight alphabetic characters. This should be some sort of name, and not just a random group of letters. It can't include spaces, special characters or symbols.

Your unique identifier must be easy to remember, so if a customer needs to refer to their passenger service driver they can easily remember the name on their ID card. If your unique identifier is not memorable enough or not appropriate, we may ask you to choose another unique identifier.

The driver licensing system will add numbers to the end of your unique identifier. For example, if you enter JONJONES as your unique identifier, on your ID card it may display as JONJONES 123.

If you only drive large passenger service vehicles (13 seats or more) you don't need an ID card.

23. I want an ID card with this unique identifier:

This can be up to eight alphabetic characters maximum.

Endorsement length

24. How long do you want your endorsement(s) to last?

One year OR Five years

Please tick the appropriate box.

Medical declaration

25. Do you have a medical condition or disability* that could affect your ability to drive safely?

*Examples of medical conditions or disabilities that could affect your ability to drive safely include:

- Alzheimers
- head or spinal injuries
- amputations
- high blood pressure
- convulsions
- joints or limb problems
- diabetes
- mental illness
- double vision
- stroke.
- epilepsy or fits

Medication and treatments can also affect your ability to drive safely.

Medical certificate

*Your medical certificate must have been for the same medical standard as the endorsements you're applying for now.

Classes 2, 3, 4 and 5 and P, V, I and O endorsements are the same medical standard.

You must provide a medical certificate if you:

haven't provided a medical certificate to Waka Kotahi in the last five years, or are turning 75 years of age or older, or have a medical condition or disability that has affected your ability to drive safely in the last five years.

The medical certificate must be issued by a New Zealand registered health practitioner, for example your doctor (GP), a registered nurse or nurse practitioner, or a specialist if appropriate. It should be a Medical certificate for driver licence (DL9) or the equivalent (your health practitioner will have stocks of this medical certificate).

The medical certificate must be no more than 60 days old when you make this application.

If you're not sure if you've given Waka Kotahi a medical certificate in the last five years, call us on 0800 822 422 to check.
